2005 PHOTO CALENDAR

Thanks to everyone who submitted entries to our photo contest last year. The pictures you sent blew us away and we decided to create this calendar to showcase them.

Load your printer with A4 paper. We recommend a heavyweight stock or even photo paper for the best image reproduction quality. Plus, it's a calendar you'll be using all year, so you will want to use a durable paper.

Once you've loaded the paper, simply print the calendar as you would a normal document. You can print out all the pages at once and staple them together at the top (see diagram below) like a traditional calendar or print out each month as needed.

Pie

Submitted by Sheldon Rifkin
Uses a Lexmark X75 printer

The photographer said it best:
At a street fair in New York City, All the pies looked so tasty and pretty!
Tween sweet potato and pecan – I needed a plan! So I cut each in two – Then I knew what to do!
Half of each – brew up some beans –
take a photo – by all means!
